3	Presidents Report	Paula Everett
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The formal president's report for 2022-2023 is located on our website. A busy and productive year. Meetings with the Division/Chapter Presidents from around the country. Discussed a range of topics including declining member numbers and a lack of volunteers for leadership roles at both a state and national level. The Board is working on initiatives to improve this situation and encourages more people to step up to leadership roles. Several divisions have asked for more information about becoming a chapter following on from the NSW decision last year. Issues with the website. The Board is working with the new IT project manager Bruce Boyes to address a list of issues. The key priorities are the membership list and improving the website. The Board has focused on governance this year with a meeting with a facilitator from Directors Australia and will concentrate on strategic planning meetings to take ALLA forward as an association. Membership Thanks to Aurorah Nelson for her work as Membership

	coordinator, we are now seeking to fill that role. The membership report is available on the website. We have 312 members and 26 life members. We need to focus on increasing numbers. Fees this year increased by 10% to cover GST. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Conference: Planning is underway for next years conference in Adelaide, South Australia. Shanna Sheldrick from Premier events will be supporting the conference committee and we are currently seeking people to join the committee. • CPD: Thank you to everyone national and state who has organised events this year. • FLO/Finding the Law: This has been a major project and will be available to members only via the website. A big thank you to Anastasia Stepanovic and Alice Hewitt who have led this project. • Paula thanked the Board and non-Board members for their support this year.
4	Financial Reports	Phil Mullen
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The financial report and summary for 2022-2023 is located on our website. • There are still a number of outstanding renewals, please add your names to the invoices. • The conference made a reasonable profit last year, we need to encourage more people to attend next year.
5	Journal Report	Fiona McDowall and Damaris Olea
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fiona McDonald (Business Manager) • The Journal report for 2022-2023 is located on our website. • It has been a good year, readership is increasing. 7	General Business and Questions	Paula Everett

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Awards for 2023: • The 2023-24 Petal Kinder International Travel Fellowship was awarded to Melissa Mills. • There were no nominations this year for the Legal Information Service of the Year or GEM awards. • Phil Mullens was awarded Law Librarian of the Year. Phil has made a substantive and ongoing contribution to ALLA since he became a member and has held regular positions on the ALLA Board as director, Treasurer, CPD coordinator to name just a few. As Treasurer he recently streamlined the accounting processes. Phil contributes to the Australian Law Librarian journal. He shares his knowledge generously and helps connect people. Congratulations to Phil who is an outstanding member and contributor to ALLA. Phil: 'Thank you and appreciate it.' • Life Memberships for 2023 awarded to Michael Gaven and Josie Cox. Michael has been an ALLA / ALLG member since 1999 and joined the ALLA board as treasurer in 2015. He has served as ALLA National Vice President, President, and Past President. He has had a significant impact on the modernisation of ALLAs structure and functions. Josie has been an invaluable member of ALLA, championing, encouraging, supporting, and inspiring all that have had the chance to get to know her. At the Law Institute of Victoria Josie was always there to lend a hand, had such a great sense of humour and was always a familiar face. On behalf of the Board and members we say thank you to Michael and Josie. Michael: 'Many thanks for the generous words and award.' • Questions: • Kate: - 'Will ALLA be providing feedback on the new AGLC5?' Paula Everette: 'Yes, we do want to comment on that and will be taking that forward with the new Board and encourage everyone to give feedback.' Carole Hinchcliff: 'The deadline for AGLC 5 proposals for change is October 31, 2023.' • Other Business: • Phil Mullens: 'The journal needs advertising so when chatting to the publisher representatives do mention it to them.' • Laurie Atkinson: 'Paula thank for your leadership, you have been so inclusive, and this AGM has been wonderfully chaired.' Meeting closed at 1.32 pm
